ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant Wesley Cameron (Cameron) (Filing No. 65). Cameron seeks until March 10, 2014, in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Cameron's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 65) is granted. Cameron is given until on or before March 10, 2014, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between February 10, 2014, and March 10, 2014, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 10th day of February, 2014.
